THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY UNARMED—
SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY DEFENDED.—THE
FREE-SOILISTS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PLATE-
FORM PROTEST FROM THE RECORD.—THE
SOUTHERN ORGAN OF THE CINCINNATI PLATE-FORM ARE NOW STRUGGLING IN THE TOOLS WHICH WERE SET BY THEMSELVES.—THE FREE-
SOILERS OF THE NORTH WERE NOT UN-DERSTOOD EACH OTHER, AND I HOPE THERE
WILL BE NO WAR.—“SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY” IS AN IM-PORTANT CONCEPTUAL ASPECT OF THE FREE-
SOILISTS’ POSITION, BUT IT IS MORE DANGEROUS
THAN THE ADAMANTINE WALLS OF THE PLATE-
FORM.—THEIR ADAMANTINE WALLS ARE DANGEROUS.

While the Southern Democracy were thus violently denouncing this doctrine, “all others than myself” were doing the same. The Free-Soilists of the North were not understood each other, and I hope there will be no war. “Squatter sovereignty” is an important conceptual aspect of the Free-Soilists’ position, but it is more dangerous than the adamantine walls of the platform.—Their adamantine walls are dangerous.

Mr. Trumbull, I will expostulate with him.

The abolitionists have harangued for it,

and, as they say, “preached for it,”

but they never heard a word from me.

TUE DOW OF THE AMERICANS IN KENTUCKY.—We think that all our friends understand what this duty is. It is to organize immediately and vigorously in every county and every precinct. It is to make provisions to induce every eligible voter from the great mass of the people to exercise his right to permit not one to cast a vote.

It will be remembered and properly considered beforehand, so that the day of the election may be inclement, so that unless ample arrangements are made to bring the infirm and the aged to the polls a large Fillmore vote may be lost.

Not the vote of a single voter can be lost in this country. It is impossible for any voter to poll without the aid of his political friends. Fellow-Americans, every man of who realises the importance of the present awful emergency of the country will act upon the advice we now give.

THE PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.—The more we hear from Pennsylvania, the more perfectly we are convinced that the late election was carried by monstrous frauds, and that these are not yet over. We are getting for you the news of November. The anti-slavery vote in Philadelphia city and county was greater on Tuesday than it ever was before, and the city and county were carried by the Sag-Nights only by their increasing nearly eleven thousand over their vote of any preceding year. There has been a great decrease of their legitimate strength, and the increase of the supporters at the polls in the 1st instant was wholly from imported votes.

The Washington City Organ, issued on the morning of the election, said:

"More than half a million of dollars have been collected in the various cities and carried into Philadelphia for the support of the Buchanan ticket. Nearly 8,000 foreigners have been naturalized in Philadelphia, and the number of men from the adjacent States have been hired to go into Pennsylvania and vote—hundreds of railroads, steamship companies, &c., have agreed to give a free passage to all foreign voters who shall be sent here."

UNLAWFUL SAG-NIGHT VOTE SHALL BE CARRIED OUT.—Let the whole discipline and power of the American organization be faithfully and fearlessly bent to the enforcement of this vital point. If this be done, all will be well; if not, all will be lost. A bold and utterly uncompromising stand must be taken, and it will be professed by the Sag-Night leaders of Kentucky, which, if carried out, will absolutely sweep away all the resistance that can be offered forward unceasingly and will no doubt be communicated at the polls if he, that is, Kentucky will be for Fillmore and add new brightness to her old renown.

FIFTH DAY OF THE AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The agricultural fair was held yesterday at an early hour, was well attended, and the exhibition commenced promptly. After a fine display of jacks and mules, the trial of speed in the trotting ring commenced. These were ten entries, but only six entered the contest. The distance was one mile. The result was as follows:

R. P. Moore, Woodford, 3:02; T. G. Martin, Louisville, 3:04; C. W. Kennedy, Fayette, 3:10; J. R. Reynolds, Louisville, 3:15; R. Sennett, Lexington, 3:17; Lewis Castanen, Fayette, 3:24.

It will be seen from the above that Mr. Martin's horse made the best time, but in consequence of the fact that the judges awarded the first premium to Mr. Moore, of Woodford, and the second to Mr. Martin.

The hasty ring was as usual very fine and well contested. All the entries were most beautiful and the thoroughbred trials exhibited added much to the interest of the show.

The boy's ring was usualy intensely interesting. Young America is at home on horseback, but it is not quite the same.
